

JOINT GOLDEN RETRIEVER CLUBS' CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW 2020 , hosted by SGRS 17-7-2021

BITCHES

First of all I would like to thank the officers and committee of the SGRS for their warm welcome and hospitality. As a new venue the covered ring was a revelation with its excellent floor. The dogs seemed to find it had great grip and most moved on it with great confidence.

I found that fronts and feet had improved considerably, but many upper arms did not have the length and angulation I was looking for. Some coats were a bit on the dry side and several otherwise lovely bitches were carrying too much weight. However, there were many bitches in good bloom and condition, with sound construction, which made my day most enjoyable. Thank you to the exhibitors who entered.

Special Veteran (5) This was a lovely class and the owners should be justly proud of them all.

- 1 Mandley's Maltqudos Miss Mash. What a pretty head she has. Good front and feet with good bone. She has a lovely outline with a level topline and strong quarters. Moved very well.
- 2 Oldring's Fenwood Victoria Beckham At Flaxengold. Very close up to 1, but just carrying a bit too much weight. Excellent outline with good neck and well angulated shoulders, level topline and good tailset. Did not move quite as well as 1.

Showed extremely well and moved very steadily.

Junior (11.1) 2 lovely bitches headed this class.

- 1 Keightley's Richana A Star Is Born. Quality cream bitch, she has a well shaped head, feminine with good pigment. Her shoulders are well angulated, matched with her well muscled quarters. A reachy neck flows into a strong topline giving a clean outline. She is short coupled with good spring of rib. In good, well presented coat. Showed well.
- 2 Lane & Lane-Ridyard's Kulawand Sky With Damonds. She is of very similar construction to 1, with a lovely outline and good angulation front and rear, put together with level topline and excellent length of neck. Her presentation was textbook and she showed and moved well, as expected from this kennel. Just preferred the balance of 1.

Minor Limit (7,3)

- 1 Leonard's Wynrita Secret Magic J.W. She is a smaller compact golden bitch, who pulled out all the stops at the end to win over 2, who was very close up. Never stopped wagging her tail, she is short coupled with great angulation of upper arm and shoulder placement. Her topline is level and her quarters strong with a good bend of stifle, so giving a most attractive outline.
- 2 Seamons' Messano Double Or Quits J.W. Larger cream bitch of quality and substance. She is beautifully made with an excellent outline and angulation both ends. She has a very pretty head and was in good, well presented coat. I liked her a lot, but unfortunately she started to crouch as time went on which made her lose her balance.

Limit (19,5) Several I liked in this class were carrying too much weight.

- 1 Foreman's Wynrita Hot To Trot To Ambersun. Compact golden girl who showed her heart out and demanded to be noticed. Lovely balanced outline with straight front, excellent angulation both ends, dead level topline and strong quarters with good bend of stifle. Stood free and everything was in the right place. She was beautifully presented in full coat and moved out confidently. I was pleased to award her the Res CC in good company.
- 2 Ives' Trewater Busy Lizzie At Balsamina. She is an elegant cream bitch with a super outline. Her forelegs are straight and shoulders well angulated, neck flowing into level topline. She was in lovely, well presented coat and was well handled.
